

MEET OUR
NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

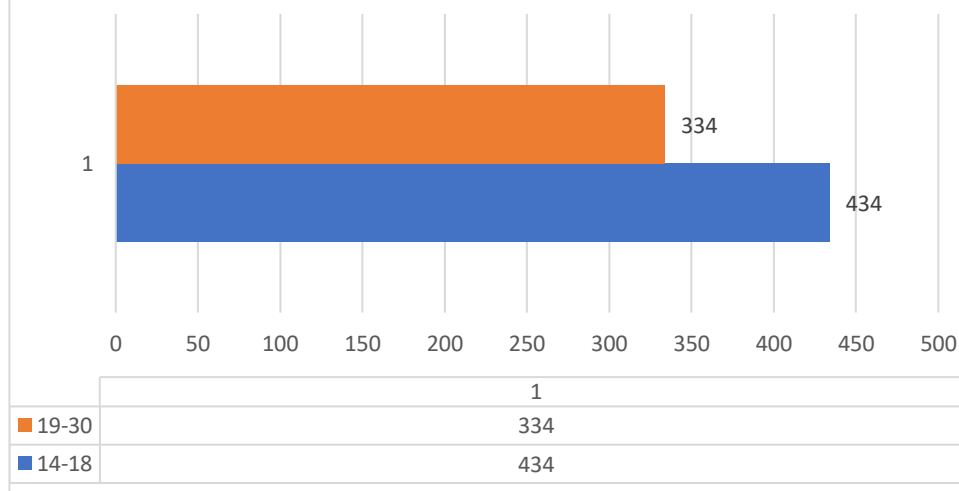

Gender

Country

Age

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

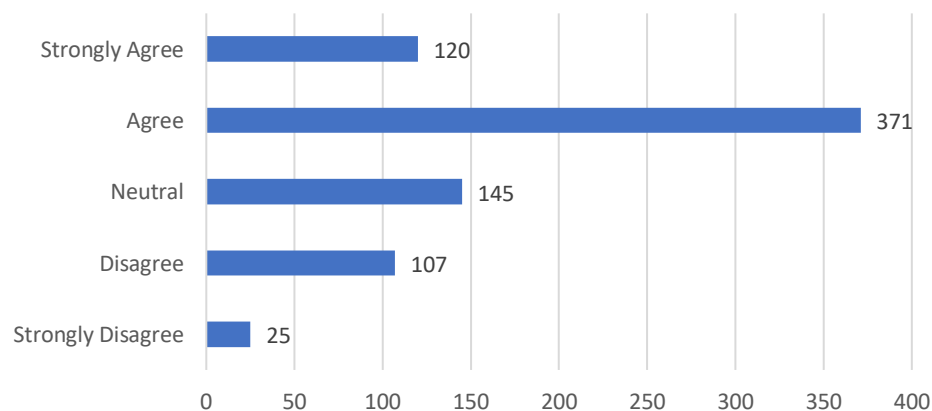

2. Cultural differences between my own and European cultures are unimportant, and everyone should conform to one set of cultural norms and values.

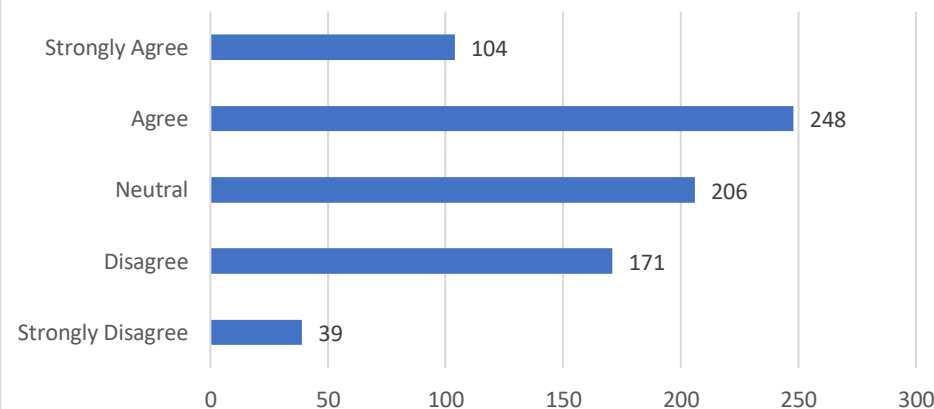

3. There are no significant differences between Bulgarian/Greek/Macedonian/ Romanian/Serbian/Turkish cultures.

4. It is essential to defend and preserve my cultural values and beliefs when interacting with people from European cultures.

5. I need to defend my cultural practices and traditions when I meet with a person from Bulgarian, Greek, Macedonian, Romanian and Turkish cultures.

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

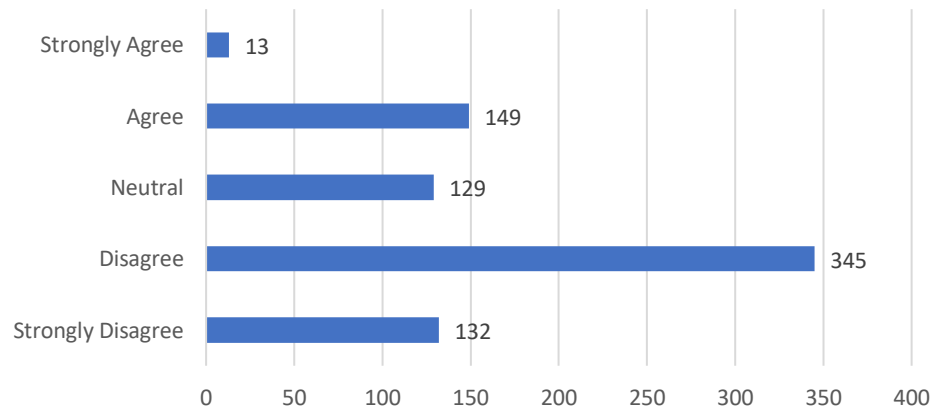

6. It is better to be Serbian than to be European.

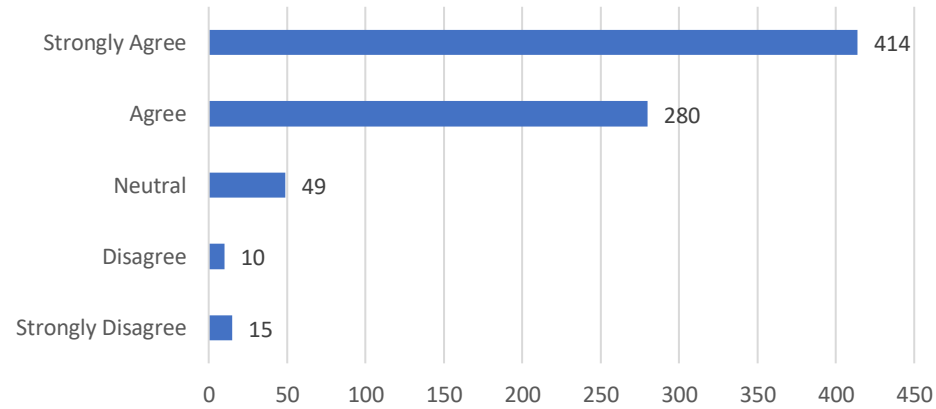

7. Cultural differences between my own and European cultures are minimal and can be ignored or overlooked in communication and interactions.

8. Differences in values, beliefs, customs, traditions, and practices between Bulgarian, Greek, Macedonian, Romanian, Serbian, and Turkish cultures are minor and insignificant.

9. When interacting with people from European cultures, I try to understand and respect their values, beliefs, and behaviours, even if they differ from my own.

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

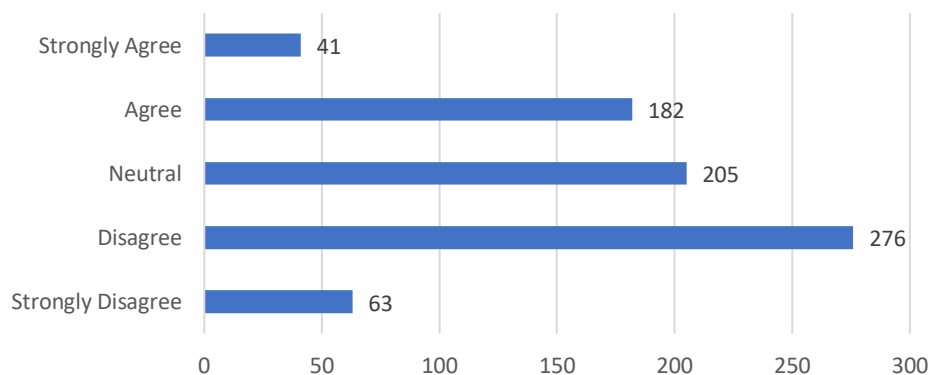

10. When confronted with cultural differences between Bulgarian, Greek, Macedonian, Romanian, Serbian, and Turkish cultures, I try to find common ground and appreciate diversity.

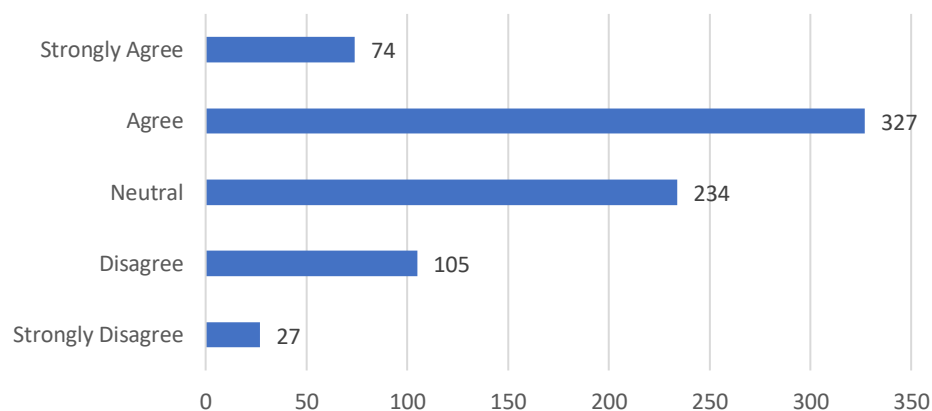

11. It is essential to adapt and adjust my communication and behaviour when interacting with people from European cultures to communicate and collaborate with them effectively.

12. In my interactions with people from Bulgarian, Greek, Macedonian, Romanian and Turkish cultures, I tend to adapt my behaviour or communication style to fit in with these cultures by avoiding my cultural practices and expectations.

13. Integrating and incorporating elements from European cultures into my own is crucial to building a more inclusive and diverse community or society.

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

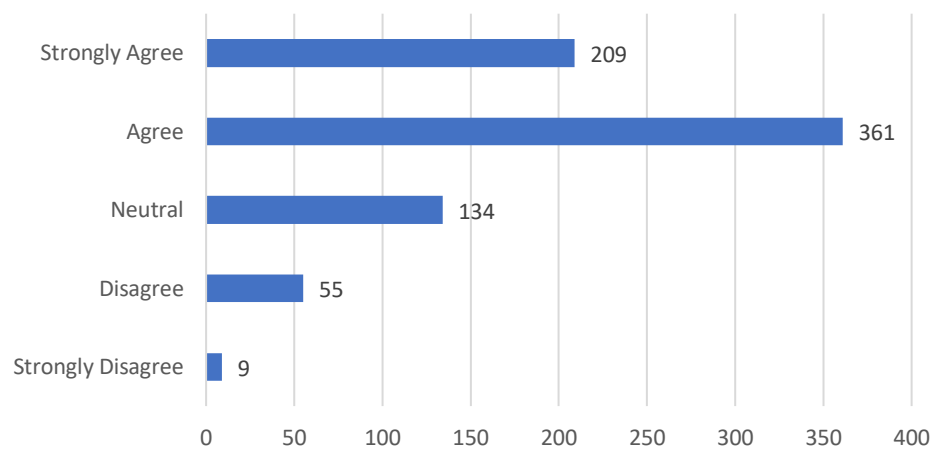

14. Since Bulgarian, Greek, Macedonian, Romanian, Serbian, and Turkish cultures intersect and influence each other in terms of language, customs, traditions, and values, I try to integrate aspects of these cultures into my own.

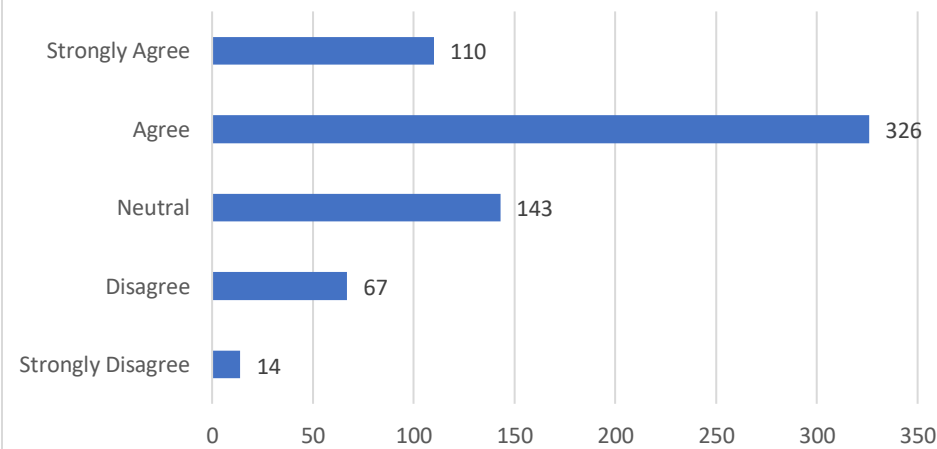

15. I want the EU to expand by accepting new countries from the Balkan Peninsula.

16. Food serves as a point of connection among Balkan nations.

17. The differences in religion between Balkan nations have contributed to conflicts or divisions between Balkan societies.

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

What can contribute to good relations between the Balkan countries in the future?

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Choose five of the distinguishing characteristics below that best describe, in your opinion, the European

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union

Choose five of the distinguishing characteristics below that best describe, in your opinion your nation

MEET OUR NEIGHBOURS 2

Co-funded by the Erasmus+ Programme
of the European Union